THE HOME OF THE PIPE ORGAN

Elaine," a high class serial introducing Lionel Barrymore and the mysterious "Mr. X." This is the last of the celebrated "Elaine" serials and will be more than ever sought after by her numerous ardent admirers.

Beautiful and dainty Nell Craig and Sidney Ainscourt are seen in a high class Essanay dramatic feature, "Counter Intrigue." This picture alone will be worth while going miles to see. "Sunny Jim at the Mardi Gras" furnishes a lot of amusement.

Saturday an extra high class "Diamond S" feature will top the program. "Sands of Time" is the title. It was written and directed by Colin Campbell, the artist who directed "The Spoilers," which is to be seen soon on the Bijou screen. The cast includes Harry Lonadale, Martha Boucher, Wheeler Oakman and Frank Clark. Helen Holmes will be on in a railroad thriller, "The Human Chain." "The Pipe Dream," a comedy scream, with Billy Mason and Ruth Hennessy, will close the program.

Arnold Daly is appearing in motion pictures called the Arnold Daly series, the first being "Ashton Kirk, Investigator," from John C. McIntyre's stories of that name. Sheldon Lewis and Louise Rutter will be the leading members of this company.

A pleasingly diversified bill of three exceptionally good acts is being presented at the Odeon for the last half of this week.

The first act on the bill is by Charles J. Born, a Philadelphia favorite and basso soloist whose range of voice is remarkable. His selections are well rendered and cordially received.

The second act is by Morton and Fairfield, an old time, high class comedy team that has toured the country for years on the very best vaudeville circuits. The Caswells are exponents of high class society dances. Their repertoire includes all of the latest dances, the tango, the fox trot, the hesitation waltz, the New York stroll and all the rest. They are presenting a black face specialty called "The New Doctor."

Taken as a whole the bill presented is a very strong one and is giving universal satisfaction to the large audiences attending every performance of this week.

Raymond L. Schock, scenario editor of the eastern Universal studios, has just completed a four-reel play in which the eminent stage favorites, Effie Shannon and Herbert Kelcey, will be featured. John Adams will direct the feature while a strong cast will support the stars, in what is expected to be a banner production.

THE ROSE OF THE RANCHO

William S. Hart is seen on the Star theater screen today in his own play a two-reel Broncho thriller full of exciting situations entitled "The Ruse." Daddy Manley is seen in one of those bright, breezy Powers comedy dramas, "Learning to Be a Father." Frank Lloyd and Miss Peggy Hart have the leads in "Eleven to One," a Laemle drama, "The Old Church," one of those long, lingering, laughing gems by the LKO Comedy Company, and "A Voice in the Night," a two reel Eclair special, are also shown.

Adeline Genee, who is now in London, has declined an American engagement because she fears crossing the war zone. For the same reason American actors are refusing engagements in American productions in London.

James K. Hackett will appear in "Macbeth" and also "Othello." He has a romantic comedy by J. Du Rocher Macpherson called "MacNeill of MacNeill, V. C." At present he is spending his vacation about the Thousand Islands on his yacht.

The feature today at the Bijou is the first number of "The Romance of

NEW PICTURE SERIAL STARTS AT PALACE

New Bill by Reese Brothers' Musical Comedy Company is Pleasing.

Reese Brothers' Musical Comedy Company is presenting an entire new bill at the Palace theater and it is receiving the best of comments. The first part is entitled "The Cabaret Minstrels" and the last part consists of special vaudeville acts, and specialties. Murray and Bailey carry off honors with high class singing and dancing. The grand finale, "Dancing at the Ball," is a big hit. Those who have not seen this company do not want to miss the big treat as tonight and tomorrow will be the last chance. "The Diamond from the Sky," the new $300,000 photoplay serial, starts today. The first chapter is entitled "A Heritage of Hate." In 1885, Sir Arthur Stanley was banished from England. He came to Virginia to live, where his gallantries to an Indian maid placed him in great peril. He fled for his life. The Indians captured and tied him to a stake. The torture fires were lit, when a blazing meteor streaked across the sky and fell a few yards distant. The savages were terrified. They believed the meteor to be an omen of displeasure from the "Great Spirit." Stanley took advantage of the panic. He freed himself from the stake and declared himself a supernatural being. A huge diamond was found in the heart of the "Great Spirit." Stanley, the lead as Esther and Irving Cummings as Arthur Stanley.

"The Girl from His Town," a four-reel American Mutual Master picture, with Margarita Fischer in the leading role, has all the ear marks of a sensational success.

What it means to be in a Mexican jail, as many Americans have been.

R.A. WALSH AND EAGLE EYE IN "THE OUTLAW'S REVENGE IN THE DAWN OF A NEW REPUBLIC" FOUR-PART MUTUAL MASTERPIECE PRODUCED BY RELIANCE has never been better shown than in a series of scenes in "The Outlaw's Revenge or the Dawn of a New Republic," a four-part Mutual Master picture, which is being shown at the Orpheum today. In these scenes we see the captive, Villa, imprisoned without process of law and locked in a vile straw covered cell from which he escapes through the help of a faithful Indian. His subsequent ride across country is thrilling. His companion is killed and his own horse shot under him. Then Villa hides, only to spring on a passing federal and deprive him of horse and gun, escaping by these means.

The management of the Robinson Grand is presenting for today's feature attraction, "The Rose of the Rancho," in five acts produced by the combined efforts of David Belasco and Jesse L. Lasky. This romantic drama enjoyed a run of two years at the Belasco theater, New York, and was reputed to be one of the most eloquent dramatic classics ever staged. Cecil De
